Editor's Note

On behalf of this year's authors, I am pleased to present the St. John Fisher College Undergraduate Review. This edition is composed of papers from all different majors, from a wide range of Fisher students. I am proud to see that these talented students decided to share their work for the enjoyment of so many readers.

Keep reading and you will find papers from various disciplines such as Psychology, English, Women and Gender Studies, Modern Language, and Communications, with topics ranging from cartoon's influence on our everyday language and foreign language standards in the United States to African cultural practices and the effect exercise has on the elderly.

Each paper represents hours, and in some cases semesters, of hard work and dedication, and I hope that you are able to enjoy and learn from our writers. I know you find the papers interesting; please consider submitting some work of your own in the future. Thanks for reading!
