TETRAD

SANCTUARY

Be thou love my sweet content, Yet joined in mortal bound,
But like to heaven's firmament,
    Two souls as one resound.
Be thou love my sole reward,
    In happiness transpose,
And never let my thought regard Another one's repose.
Be thou love my impetus,
    To works fulfilled in grace,
Keep my heart in constant rouse,
    To life's incessant pace.

Larry Fleckenstein

GOLDEN BOY

A small gold boy stood by the pool crying —
I want the sunset color in the trees and the sound of the leaves
He stood shouting crying
as the sun went down in a laughing
mock of dusk.
