Winter Nostalgia

Void of whiteness falls the snow
Into silver hands raised high
Regal voices soft and low
Granting wishes from the sky.

Instant sorrow fills this breast
Noiseless dreams engulf this soul
Isolation seems to wrest
Aged mankind from this knoll.

Into deeper trances fall
Lonely island feels the cold
Over every pore do call
Voices seeking from the fold.

Ever close now come to me
Youth and beauty virgin bright
Over all come set me free
Until now alone with fright.

JOSEPH G. GENDUSO

A "j. a." Type Lesson

(It was once believed that the human fetus, whole and complete, was conceived entirely in the male parent. The womb was merely a place for this microscopic body, Homunculus, to grow.)

J. ROBBINS

Homunculus.

Whole man conceived
by one.

Incarnate offspring

Of men who need
no love.

Not so!

Conception without union?

No life.

No man
Gives birth
Alone.
