-10, AGAIN

"Minus 10, again,"
The weatherman said.
The snow keeps falling, the arctic winds are blowing,
The ice is building up under
The snow.
Minus 10, again.
What is happening?
Is this Global warming or
Is this Global freezing?
We are tired of Jack Frost nipping
At our nose and the layers upon layers
Of clothes.
Mister weatherman please do not say,
"Minus 10, again" today.
There is no place to go,
To get away from the bitter cold.
