corridor sleep

night comes swiftly on light feet
ushering in the darkness of my mind
craving the sun that burns me burns my eyes
two cubes of ice plunged in boiled water
 melting- -blurring
 i cannot see the horizon i cannot see the end of it all
trapped in an endless
 corridor
 no rights- -no lefts
 no end in sight
running desperately
 which never comes
i stumble glance around darkness
 falls
 my hair crowds
 my vision
 tangled in webs of denial
i am rocking banging my head wondering at the simplicity of life
 and begging for harsher corners slants of light disrupted by eclipsed moons
falling stars that leave giant thumbprints
 upon the earth

change is too
 tame
 is an illusion
 is a lullaby
sung to help us drift to sleep
