COMMIT TO MEMORY

BY KEVIN MCALLISTER

Commit to memory the sins you have committed
And weep at your forgery of love that had me smitten
'Cause you dug me a grave and then spat on it
And then you said, "but I still love you"
And I lay suffocating on the dirt that I'm in
But I'd rather taste dirt than your lips again
How can I move on when I still think about you?
How can I love anyone when it's you I adore?
How can I still feel for you after you destroyed me?
How can I still love you when it's you I abhor?
My feelings betray me but my mind is sharp
It's you who ruined me, who broke my heart
