

December 2004

Preliminary Pages

No Author

Follow this and additional works at: <https://fisherpub.sjfc.edu/verbum>

How has open access to Fisher Digital Publications benefited you?

Recommended Citation

Author, No (2004) "Preliminary Pages," Verbum: Vol. 2 : Iss. 1 , Article 1.

Available at: <https://fisherpub.sjfc.edu/verbum/vol2/iss1/1>

This document is posted at <https://fisherpub.sjfc.edu/verbum/vol2/iss1/1> and is brought to you for free and open access by Fisher Digital Publications at St. John Fisher College. For more information, please contact fisherpub@sjfc.edu.

Preliminary Pages

VERBUM

St. John Fisher College
Religious Studies Department Club

Fall 2004

Verbum 2004

Volume 2, Issue 1

Editor Linda Wert

Layout Courtney Ren
Linda Wert
Jodi Rowland

Submission Review Committee

Dr. Rev. John Colacino, Rev. Lee Chase
Dr. Rev. Michael Costanzo
Dr. Rev. Bill Graf, Dr. Jane Hicks
Dr. Linda MacCammon

Alumni Advisors Jodi Rowland, Class of 2004
Jonathan Schott, Class of 2002
Coordinator of Faith Formation at Church of the Transfiguration,
Pittsford, NY

Faculty Advisor Dr. Rev. Michael Costanzo

Special Thanks to David Mammano for his support

Copyright 2004
Department of Religious Studies, St. John Fisher College,
3690 East Avenue, Rochester, NY 14618
All rights reserved

Letter from the Editor

With the commencement of a new year and the arrival of a new president, on both a national and collegiate level, we find ourselves in a time of change when we must learn to adapt. Keeping this adaptation in mind, the Religious Studies Club introduces its third issue of Verbum.

This issue will attempt to continue to broaden understandings of other religions and bring a sense of family to the Fisher community. That brings us to the matter at hand—we, at the Religious Studies Club, dedicate this issue of Verbum to Dr. Katherine Keough, who has impacted St. John Fisher College in multiple ways.

From touching on daily morality issues to in depth biblical research, this issue strives to reach an inner core of religiosity. These articles will challenge the mind and the spirit of the readers, unlocking the mystery of our world's religious traditions.

In closing, the legacy of Dr. Keough will not cease with her death, but will continue and thrive.

In the end, we thank you, Dr. Keough, for all you have given us, and we shall attempt to carry your values forward to future St. John Fisher students and the surrounding community.

Sincerely,

Linda Wert, Editor
Courtney Ren, Layout Editor
Jonathan Schott, Alumni Advisor
Jodi Rowland, Alumni Advisor

Table of Contents

In Memory of Dr. Katherine Keough

Faith in Health and Health in Life Sarah M. Piston	4
--	---

Alumni Corner

The Reality of Humiliation: A Reflection Jonathan Schott, Class of 2002	9
---	---

Brief Essay

* All Part of God's Plan? Michael Galpin	14
--	----

"Living With Other Gods" Essays

Quratulain Majoka, First Place Winner	18
Kristina Braell, Second Place Winner	24
Matt Zheleznyak, Third Place Winner	27

Research Papers

+ From Abraham to Jacob: Promise and Fulfillment Linda Wert	31
The 10 Commandments James L. Smith, Jr.	45

Faculty Essay

Fire in the Soul of Zurga: Bizet's The Pearl Fishers and Male Sati Dr. Lori Dabbagh	51
---	----

+Prize awarded by Dr. Michael Costanzo

* Prize awarded by Jonathan Schott and Jodi Rowland

In Memory of
Dr. Katherine Keough

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

March 25, 2004

Fr. Michael Constanzo
Religious Studies Department
St. John Fisher College

Dear Fr. Constanzo,

It is with pleasure that I congratulate you on the Religious Studies Club's first edition of Verbum. Thank you for thinking of me and sending along a copy. This is a fine thing that the Religious Studies Club has started here at Fisher. Our students have shown great leadership and creativity in undertaking this project. Thus far I have only had a chance to read selected sections but have been quite impressed with your students' submissions but look forward to seeing more of their works in the future. With warmest personal regards, I remain

Cordially,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Katherine E. Keough". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large initial 'K'.

Katherine E. Keough