Letter from the Editor

Dear Readers,

VERBUM is in its fourth year. Each year it adds a unique perspective to the St. John Fisher community about religion through the eyes of faculty, students, essays, and poetry. It is a unique perspective of individuals taken on different religions and beliefs. It is an outlet for individual perspectives and I am thankful for everyone that contributed. Congratulations to everyone who submitted to the biyearly publications. You helped make the issue a great one. I encourage you to read VERBUM cover to cover and think about its content. It is another outlet for diversity on the campus, and I am thankful for you interest in the publication. VERBUM will be published again in the spring and I encourage you to submit for that issue; all topics, all religions welcome. Thank you again for reading it, and I hope you'll enjoy it!

Sincerely,

Erin Knoerl
President-REST Club

Happy Thanksgiving
