Fresh Perspectives From the Field: The Voices of New Distance Librarians

Christina Hillman
St. John Fisher College, chillman@sjfc.edu

Mia Breitkopf
State University of New York College at Brockport, mbreitkopf@sjfc.edu

Ina Rodino
Brigham Young University Idaho

Anjali Parasnis-Samar
Monroe Community College

How has open access to Fisher Digital Publications benefited you?

Follow this and additional works at: https://fisherpub.sjfc.edu/library_pub

Part of the Library and Information Science Commons

Publication Information
Hillman, Christina; Breitkopf, Mia; Rodino, Ina; and Parasnis-Samar, Anjali, "Fresh Perspectives From the Field: The Voices of New Distance Librarians" (2018). Lavery Library Faculty/Staff Publications. Paper 62.
https://fisherpub.sjfc.edu/library_pub/62

Please note that the Publication Information provides general citation information and may not be appropriate for your discipline. To receive help in creating a citation based on your discipline, please visit http://libguides.sjfc.edu/citations.

This document is posted at https://fisherpub.sjfc.edu/library_pub/62 and is brought to you for free and open access by Fisher Digital Publications at St. John Fisher College. For more information, please contact fisherpub@sjfc.edu.
Fresh Perspectives From the Field: The Voices of New Distance Librarians

Abstract
Sometimes the newest voices are the ones we want to hear. New librarians start their first library jobs with valuable original ideas—but how do we listen to them and bring their voices into the conversation? Panelists will share their experiences as new librarians, in newly created Distance Librarian positions. Come share your voice, and ask us questions about our challenges, success, and failures. Don’t just listen to new librarians talk. Come with your ideas, so we can discuss how new and experienced librarians can build a community. This is a session for both new and experienced librarians.

Disciplines
Library and Information Science

Comments
Panel session from the 18th Distance Library Services Conference in San Antonio, Texas on April 12, 2018.

This conference proceeding is available at Fisher Digital Publications: https://fisherpub.sjfc.edu/library_pub/62
Fresh Perspectives From the Field: The Voices of New Distance Librarians

Christina Hillman, St. John Fisher College
Mia Breitkopf, College at Brockport, State University of New York
Ina Rodino, Brigham Young University-Idaho
Anjali Parasnis-Samar, Monroe Community College, State University of New York
ABOUT MIA
Online & Hybrid Learning Librarian for 2.5 years

Music teacher
Grantmaking
Lib School
UPenn online
Brockport

ONLINE @ BROCKPORT THIS FALL
9% GRAD
5% UG

7100 UNDERGRAD & 1100 GRAD

0 TO 15 ONLINE PROGRAMS IN LAST 5 YEARS

BIG CHANGE
Ina Rodino
ONLINE LIBRARIAN

- Helping Students Since 2015
- 11,513 Online Students
- 1,300 Online Faculty Per Semester
- 13 Librarians
- 24 Online Curriculum Developers
- 3 Years as Librarian
MCC Fall 2017 enrollment: 12,907
295 full-time faculty
71% of students enrolled in transfer programs

More than half of enrolled students take at least one online class.
About Christina

- Hired Part-time June 2013
- Graduate SUNY Buffalo September 2013
- Full-time September 2014
- Never expected to be a librarian!

Finding Balance

Librarians’ Librarian

- 466 Courses with Embedded Librarians (2013-2018)
- 94 Faculty Reached (2015-2018)
What has it been like defining your role within the library?
Developing... ourselves, our colleagues, online library services, ...
Meeting people where they are . . .
The balancing act . . .
Join the conversation . . .

1. Who are your “people” at your institution who you can go to with your successes and challenges? Do you have these people?

2. Talk about an experience that built your confidence.

3. Talk about how can YOU support the newest librarians at your institution.
Who are your “people” at your institution who you can go to with your success and challenges? Do you have these people?
Tell us about an experience that built your confidence . . .
How can YOU support the newest librarians at your institution . . .
PASSION LED US HERE