Letter from the Editor

Dear Faculty, Staff, Students, and Alumni of St. John Fisher,

I want to thank you for picking up a copy of the Spring 2007 Verbum. It has been an interesting semester between sickness, controversy, and busyness with the Religious Studies Club. But it was our promise that we would make sure that Verbum would be out for you to read. Along with Verbum, the Religious Studies Club has put on the “Religion in schools” panel with Pre-Law Club, brought in Dr. Muhammad Shafiq to speak on Islam, and has hosted a Christian Meditation. Thank you to Fr. Costanzo for working so diligently on this Verbum project. It is one of my favorite things the REST Club puts out, and I am so glad you were able to help us this semester. Thank you to the members of the Religious Studies Club; you have made this semester fun and have helped me out on many occasions. Thank you to everyone who contributed their work; thank you for being so generous with sharing your writings. Thank you, readers; you are the reason why we put this publication out. We hope you enjoy the student, faculty, and guest essays. They have spent much time and effort writing, and we are all so appreciative. I hope you enjoy your copy of Verbum!!!!

Sincerely,

Erin Knoerl
Religious Studies Club President
