Holy Thursday 2007

Kyries and Glorias ago
An immortal meal
Where wine flowed freely
On DaVinci faces
Where one man chose
The whip crack scourge
Blood red thorns
And the hammer
Of hearty nails.

Tonight, years later,
The tiny child in me
Weeps
Not for my sins,
Real or imaginary,
But for the splintered pledge
Of a legendary savior
Who promised so much
To so many
And finally came back
In disguise
For me.
