Letter from the Editor

Dear St. John Fisher Students, Faculty, Staff, and Alumni,

On behalf of the Religious Studies Club I would like to thank you for picking up a copy of the spring 2008 Verbum. This semester's issue is full of thought provoking essays, poems, and more from students, faculty/staff, and alumni. I encourage you to read and think about what is written and expressed in this literary publication. I hope you take away something from this Verbum issue.

I have been blessed with being the President of the Religious Studies Club for the last two years. I have been a part of a hidden gem on campus, a true organization that exemplifies the Fisher Creed: Respect, Open-mindedness, Integrity, Diversity, Responsibility, Education, Leadership, and Growth are integral parts of the mission of the organization. An academic club by nature, the Religious Studies club has strived to be an advocate for religious diversity on campus and has consistently worked to promote diversity through speakers, panels, and literary publications.

Thank you again, and ENJOY!

Erin Knoerl
REST CLUB President
