Letter from the Editor

Dear Reader,

The Religious Studies Club has compiled a good number of works by students, former students, faculty, and guests for your reading pleasure. In this issue, one will be able to find reflections on the relationship of parents and children, a view of the world through the eyes of believers, and an essay on the life and work of Saint John Fisher on the occasion of the 60th anniversary of the foundation of St. John Fisher College. You may also be pleased to notice the inclusion of two student research papers in addition to poems by both students and staff in the poetry section. Last but not least, check out the Alumni Corner where you will find an essay by a 2002 Fisher graduate, an update on the current whereabouts of a 2008 Fisher graduate and a brief suggestive essay on “The Gospel of Mary” by a 2009 graduate hopeful. We hope you will enjoy our publication. I personally hope that you will enjoy it so much that you will be motivated to submit one of your writings for next semester's issue.

Yours,

Peter Santandreu,
