

December 2008

Catholic Grammar School

Karen Reifenstein
St. John Fisher College

Follow this and additional works at: <https://fisherpub.sjfc.edu/verbum>

Part of the Religion Commons

How has open access to Fisher Digital Publications benefited you?

---

Recommended Citation

Reifenstein, Karen (2008) "Catholic Grammar School," Verbum: Vol. 6 : Iss. 1 , Article 16.
Available at: <https://fisherpub.sjfc.edu/verbum/vol6/iss1/16>

This document is posted at <https://fisherpub.sjfc.edu/verbum/vol6/iss1/16> and is brought to you for free and open access by Fisher Digital Publications at St. John Fisher College. For more information, please contact fisherpub@sjfc.edu.

---

Catholic Grammar School

Abstract

In lieu of an abstract, below is the essay's first paragraph.

"Early in our daughter's catholic grammar school career, one of her fellow first graders very formally greeted her by smiling and saying "good morning, Ciara". From that moment on, my husband and I began to notice how our daughter and the other children developed a special bond that was fostered by a very warm and nurturing environment."

CATHOLIC GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Early in our daughter's catholic grammar school career, one of her fellow first graders very formally greeted her by smiling and saying "good morning, Ciara". From that moment on, my husband and I began to notice how our daughter and the other children developed a special bond that was fostered by a very warm and nurturing environment.

One day after our daughter was ill and was absent from school for two days, her classmates asked her how she was feeling and said they had missed her. My husband and I were impressed by the fact that a monthly award was given to two students from each grade level for "exemplary attitude and behavior". This honor is called the "Joseph Sarto Student of the Month Award". Nearly every child in the class received this award by the end of the school year. The awards were presented at a monthly school assembly, which seemed like a nice way of encouraging positive Christian behaviors at early age. Ciara was always very proud and excited when she received this honor. As her parents, we were very happy and proud that she exhibited these positive qualities.

It was a pleasure to watch our daughter grow into a considerate and kind young girl during the years at her school.

Dr. Karen Reifenstein