REMEMBERING IS SHADOWS

SPRING is a time
for shadows to crochet themselves on streets and sidewalks fine lace on lawns. Spring smells like grandma's parlor.

SUMMER is a time for shadows to do dapples to umbrella picnic tables to be soft, and children's laughter and to fall in love with moonlight.

FALL is a time
for shadows to be windy to dance a crazy lindy to thanksgive the leave that made them and to be the old earth's tatters.

WINTER is a time for shadows to be skinny to retreat into themselves and remember how they were and how they'll be.
