Fountain of Living Waters

Fountain of Living Waters

I am a fountain springing forth a well of your living waters baptizing, cleansing my hands, my feet, water escapes the edges of my fingertips, like a pitcher pouring out—splashing all that surrounds me.
In the cool, liquid crystals, I sense the beauty that only Mozart, Bach, and other classical musicians can elicit in this watery dance.
I hear words of comfort, as a tender embrace, evoking emotions of love and anticipation.
Inside I longingly yearn for the continued pulse of water flowing over my body and pumping into my entire being.
I raise my arms in prayer and watch as you spring forth, like a natural spring, clear, clean liquid emerging from my fingertips, immersing others with what I've only begun to find in you—freedom and hope and unending life.
