Letter from the Editor

Dear Reader,

Thank you for your interest in this Fall 2011 edition of Verbum. Verbum has been a long standing publication and your continued readership has been the reason for it. Verbum always receives a variety of new, interesting, and exciting pieces from the Fisher campus and this semester is no different. I would like to thank all those who made contributions to this exciting new issue! These contributions have made this new Verbum issue one of the best yet.

This issue offers a thought-provoking and heart-stirring series of submissions that will allow you to see into the life of a recent graduate about her new children and to witness the love of God from a current student. This issue reminds us of our recent past in remembering the ten years since 9/11 and our political society and views in 1928. These pieces illustrate the powerful views that we have on this campus.

I would also like to thank the review boards, compilers/editors, and of course the REST Club's academic advisor, Dr. Michael Costanzo. He has been dedicated to Verbum and has helped both the publication and REST Club grow under his tutelage. We also thank the Office of Multicultural Affairs & Diversity, the campus bookstore, and all the other individuals and organizations that made contributions for the prizes presented to the Verbum writers.

Thank you again for reading the Fall 2011 issue of Verbum!

Faithfully Yours,

Jonathan Cotugno
