Black Sheep

Black Sheep

Every family has a Black Sheep
Something that doesn't fit in
With the perfect image they try to portray
And it's sad when everyone
Calls it a secret and is ashamed of it
They shun it
Because it goes against nature
Because it's not the way
The world is supposed to work
But it's so much worse
When you know that you're the only one
Who accepts it and still loves it as much as before
You know that things will always be the same
They'll just happen in a different way
They can't run from it
The Black Sheep is still part of the family
It will always be our Black Sheep
It'll just be the type of Sheep
That will make itself happy
