The desire for space with which to watch a world grow brings the Burden of ages of men, little men to bury the sun, the grass, and the Space of thousands of stars.

—FRANS WETERRINGS

*and what does the wind want.

he has built walls,
becoming corpse while tooling tombs.*

in removing himself from wind he has removed himself from plain.

—RAY PAVELSKY
