and when the rainbow shines on my window...

Cover Page Footnote

Appeared in the issue: Spring 1970.

through the clarity of my mind a song and poem come with your face and a reflection of the time when
we ran through a field and stared at the land
below our special mountain

we watched the hill and held so close
in the feelings
we shared

Our hearts are one —
and today is
long ago

shall share the day again so come and let us go to our hill
on the wall
in the minds
share
