Cover Page Footnote

Appeared in the issue: Spring 1970.

ALONE

The night covers me with its dark and clammy breath
Again I am alone
Alone
in a house I do not love
Alone
without a friend to tell Alone
between two sheets
between floor and dome
heaven and hell
earth and sky,
Alone.

There are times my aloofness
pleases me
There are times I prefer the freedom of wind
to the warmth of soul
There are times I need no one,
There are times I am everyone
This is not that time.
