BLUE

Waterfalls of laughter flowing from her eyes
As you feel the sun upon thyself
You notice it embraces with surprise
Those feelings always left upon a shelf.
Lightheartedly you saunter, without care.
Your senses now have come to really feel
And notice that what did you never dare
But felt, that it was something almost real!
As the sun begins to fall out of the sky
This unreality begins to fade away
And dreams remain but still they never die.
And happiness of once before remains the same today.
This loveliness that laughs and longs for one,
Is something that may really n'er be done.

BLUES IN Bb

Now & then (seldom and inconsequential)
there comes (purely) to one (me & you)
a moment (one moment)
of sight (lost forever)
and breath
("I love you") and Being
