Time?

Cover Page Footnote

Appeared in the issue: Spring 1970.

TIME?

I saw you today
and hid, heart pounding;
sneaking glances from
between the leaves
of familiar trees.

That tiny hand
in your own?

Funny,
it looked so . . .
right.

(Is his name - - - ?)

You looked well;
so much the same,
and indeed better than
when you fell (in this garden)
to your knees, and cried
to (and with) me
for pardon.

You would do anything . . . remember?
but

without me
you "could not live."

You are doing well
(though).

John Icone
