The Martyrdom of John Fisher, Bishop of Rochester

"He is the one man at this time who is incomparable for uprightness of life, for learning and for greatness of soul."
Erasmus

"I reckon in this realm no one man, in wisdom, learning, and long approved virtue together, meet to be matched and compared with him."
Thomas More

Surrender, the others have done it join the revolt, relinquish your past be recognized, exulted, there’s no easier path.

Confuse not the divine with man’s desires where truth shines perennial, vain is reform resist the unreason, let His Kingdom come forth.

Man is the measure, time be not wasted an earthly decree dictate anew be one with the rest, a ruler of men.

Belong not to this world, but to heavenly abode God is the refuge, the spring in the rock He guides in the desert, all weakness redeems.

Follow the strong, preach the new gospel conform to the day, safety is in numbers preserve your status, and with it your life.

All souls thirst in this valley of tears I hope for forgiveness, and won’t lead you astray On my knees, swiftly united, blood and joy.

Accedite ad eum et illuminamini et facies vestrae non confundentur.  (Psalm 33:5)
