I've traveled counties...

Cover Page Footnote

Appeared in the issue: 1971.

Some things take so long

I've traveled counties
here and there
been to places everywhere, fragments of my memories of one night stands

forgotten dreams,
of all the things I still possess
my freedom and my loneliness Like rocky cities
and plaster kings
my songs are dead
but my life still sings.

My travels shall never stop, for them I live with them I drop Someday in a crowd
of bats and bells
a circus loud,
and end,

conclusion,
fulfillment
lurks in vengeful anger, greedy at my success
at failure.
