Yesterday’s Dream Today
I’ve rode the wind
And sailed the seas
Searching for the land
The purity of waving tides
Reflect how I be.

Listen to the roaring wind
Hear the cries of dawning tides.
And come to search like me
Remember when the dawn has come
And time it is to go,
Look upon the good you’ve done
And gentility you’ve seen.

Out of the senses of the past
You’ll go.
Beyond yesterday’s dream.
Ideas of now have come
To scheme and be seen.
