A Swallow In Lonely Flight...

Cover Page Footnote

Appeared in the issue: 1973.

A swallow in lonely flight
Brushes the air with tiny wings
In mute joy her heart sings
To herald the night

Tiny cups on slender stems
Raised to touch A toast
To warm spring days
And gentle summer nights
Once again around A toast
To warm caressing wind
And gentle misty rain

Forever 'til the sunshine
Forever 'til the dawn
Forever 'til the morning's come
And darkness heard's gone
