When Someone Cries

Cover Page Footnote

Appeared in the issue: 1980.

When someone cries

*A web-filled portal
leads to thought
sculptured arches
and honeycombed
labyrinths, hiding
treasure laden gold
that glistens
and dances on moist
walls when the light
strikes it
slowly.*

*When the tomb
is robbed,
crystalline pus
seeps from passion
crafted pottery,
brittle and cracked,
while the hand
shields a face
exposed.
It allows the high priest time
to retreat, and hide
the buried jewels
even deeper
in the cavern,
farther away from the
inquisitive torch
of the explorer.*
