Groutacious, Gustelly

Cover Page Footnote

Appeared in the issue: 1981.

“Groutacious, gustelly”

*Groutacious, gustelly,
neer snowlly is it
to lin your mouse,
to profin your life,
and it goffers more plire
than soften your gife.*

*Bed yut weder!
Dit is calantly froyal,
not for nor fend,
because thich hati fops eak
is your frest bend.*

DIANE DELLUOMO

“I waited for the Music”

*I waited for the Music
But the Music never came.
I thought that it would hit me,
Wisdom in the rain.*

*But I see it clearly now.
The answers lie within.
Let the soul take over
When the heart gives in to sin.*

*When the body stands uncertainly
And the truths no longer hold
When the mind begins to cloud in doubt
Man looks to the soul.*
