Measure

I will kiss your neck press it

gently till your voice goes within

I will follow it to your bosom

stay with it keeping your voice company

till we can come out in a word that is not yours
but ours

Rob Cullivan

Ode to Jeremy

I walk through the door Seeing toys scattered about Your pictures taped to the fridge
I hear you call my name And smile

I remember long walks Pushing you in the stroller Reading the Cat in the Hat Laughing our way through A jitterbug
Dizzy dancing in the living room

Gentle hugs from behind While peddling along on my bike
You say
The sun is following us home
In the bushes

Sneakers pounding on the steps
Singing This Ol’ Man Knees worn thin
You run into the room
Hotwheel in hand
Making the rounds
For goodnight kisses
