Peace

Moose: Peace

It only takes a minute,
and then I'm there,
there in the sun,
in the balmy breeze,
in the clean, fragrant air.
The sand feels cool
beneath my feet,
between my toes,
as the waves lap
gently around my ankles, I could walk for miles without every realizing,
My mind is uncluttered,
free of my everyday concerns.

I am at peace.

The birds fly silently, black against the
brilliant pinks and purples of the sunset.

Everything is quiet,
except for the soft
lapping of the waves
upon the rocks
And I am at peace.

Jeanne M. Moose
