Beacon of ?
-Kevin J. White

Like a beacon of light is the utter blackness of night

The one source that you continually move towards despite your bruised and battered body that is weary from the journey

You move you trip and fall the branches continually lash out as if trying to stop you from seeing the light

Echoes of Emerson and Kipling resound through my head as if I were on a canyon

Sometimes I pause and ponder
I wonder words of wisdom
Do they Transcend?

To all, To some, To a few, To none or does it all mean something and nothing?

So many unknowns have spoken words of wisdom, the famous those who are anonymous
Those who spoke with authority
Those who spoke with fear
All in all they are there

But the question is are you willing to hear?
