You Say There's a Heaven
-Jodi Crocker

You say there's a heaven
Can you see it in the clouds?
I've been reassured all my life
But I have my doubts

How can you convince me
That what you see is real?
When your faith lies in one book
What's the big deal?

You say I have free will
To choose what I believe
And if I choose to turn away
It is only myself I deceive

If I don't believe in "your" God
In "hell" I will burn
Yet with all the "gods" out there
Which way do I turn?

You say heaven is the place
Where everything goes well
And down here on Earth
Is our own personal hell?

Yet, what if this were heaven?
And hell was much worse?
Perhaps a sign from God
Perhaps the devil's curse

Enjoy what you've been given
And stop looking for more
Because tomorrow the hand of death
May come knocking at your door

And when you have nothing left
No heaven nor no hell
You will be completely lost
With no more cause to sell

For we are only human
And we can never be free
Of the sins of our ancestors
That will never let us be

In my dreams and confidences
I will with you share
The secret of heaven...
There's nobody there

Except maybe God
Who's feeling oh so sad
Wondering how to make good
What has gone so bad
