Sky Dance

After Vincent Van Gogh's painting, The Starry Night, 1889

The colors of the midnight sky,
mesmerize my being.
Beside you on my back I lie,
galaxies are fleeing.

I long to touch the swirling hues,
deep, dark, and unending.
The town below, a mix of blues,
we are here pretending.

The moon himself is reaching out,
beckoning us to dance.
Where stars and moonbeams twirl about,
beyond all circumstance.

Electric stars in soupy night,
reflections in our eyes
continue penetrating sight,
until this midnight dies.
