The Spirited Sun Came Over To Me

The spirited sun came toward me
This morning to give me some shine
But tripped over the horizon

Dawn.

He flew through the sky
For several hours
And screamed heated obscenities

Day.

The sun landed on the other horizon
With such a large thump he made
The sky turn red and orange

Dusk.

Embarrassed by mishaps
He hid behind Earth
And took with him his shine

Night.
