Waterbottle of Desire

it sits alone in a cold, dirty fridge deceiving in its Spring Water decor everyone knows it is a guise simple tap water in a recycled bottle yet everyday I am drawn to it mornings awakened with a raspy throat evenings when the liquor still coats my tongue sweaty fingers groping after Billy Blank’s heated attack

it’s not real and I already know this as I pull the silver handle on my boxy red fridge as I swallow greedily I accept its faults come on now - haven’t we all been the Genesee River, envious of the Poland Spring?
