it is your constancy

I love, the way you can yell now with no prior warning. the way things seem to fall apart around us. fall apart at our feet. and who do we blame but ourselves. Our perfect selves, perfectly put together, perfectly tearing the other apart. it is your constancy I love. the way you show a self that I have never seen. the way my depression has begun to eat away at you, and the way that you deny it.

*After Kathleen Wakefield's line in "There and Back"
