Capturing a Moment

The fabric of my jeans has been deceived
By the seemingly crisp real imitation grass
Turf-
My moistened palms press into this created ground
As I lean back to gaze up to the heavens,
The expansive universe above me.
Amidst the haze is the ever-radiant moon;
Its beauty, as always, illuminating the night.

...An incandescent ring surrounds this moon.
In this moment, I forget my moist hands,
My dampened derriere,
My worries, fears, and doubts.
The moon extends its light beyond its normal realm
And this ring
Corona-
Expands and reached for my earthy concerns
And sends a shiver to me
As my worries
Are pulled to the moon.
