IMAGES

Images fighting their way into the mind
Music heard playing in the background
A faint, sigh of breath is let out
While the candles burn down to the wick
Leaving a blank stare across the table
No words are spoken
Only faint sounds of whispers echo through the room
Remembrance of how things were Remembrance of how things are
The silence grows profoundly deep
Reverberating every heartbeat, every thought
Deep down into the heart and mind
The staring grows more intense
The images have won,
Have broken through the music
The candles are burnt out
The whispers gain momentum
Bellowing throughout the silence
I am not alone.
