DAWN OF WINTER

Snow blankets slush
as neither pay attention to my unheated grave
as I wander through the world through life
covering up mistakes
like the winter covers fall.

Each day of winter
dawns like death approaching me approaching life
sneaking over the horizon and always around the next corner.

Death is the sun
revealing the snow after night
    after life
when all is melting away.
