SHE SPEAKS

I am the words on the page
that captures your interest
with its context .

I am the fickle lilac that blossoms in only early May .

I am the aged Red Wood- a canopy for many days .

I am the purring kitten
harmonizing to love's touch .

I am the chilled breeze
wispig away the hair across your face .

I am the stars on a dark, foggy night .

I am the clapping thunder
amid the rolling winds
of the storm .

I am the heavy door,
the hinge, and the bolted lock .

I am the pesky weed
that grows unwanted in the fruitful garden
of soft, jade grass.

I am the blurry silhouette
in your dream when
you wish to never wake-up
