A ROSE FOR GRANDMA M.

BY THERESA CHARLEBOIS

Stories travel through time, clinging fervently to the present, the future,
gaining voice by those who possess them.
They are told, retold to other generations, morphing into new life. The stories you tell me I hold deep in my heart. They unlock a past—a time of existence I am blind to. I place these stories before my own, for they are the antecedent to my life.
Each story you share is a key to the past—individually they are moments in time. As a whole, they create a clearer picture of where you—my mother—I have come from. I will hold these stories for future generations; giving a new voice,
a new life to you all over again.
This I give with love, with thanks—
My rose for you, Grandma.
