Answering The Questions Why

Cover Page Footnote
because they thought I was enough the stars were set on fire you put the book in front of me there was a blank page it smelled of garlic you kissed my shoulder a sparrow looked in my eyes the leaves turned golden and fell into the canal the coffee wasn’t strong enough no one understood there was a speed limit you told me to open my mouth I lost a dream
I craved freedom

because the world came crashing down and bled into me
