GROTESQUELY EDWARD

poetry by
JAMIE LASDA

sweet notions turning the page velvet red soaking up the impact of thought a candle dances for me when i'm near you

i feel the compelling urge to laugh your ears stick out your pants too short my insides chuckle at the thought of lovemaking so i continue in my living and you in yours

and we in ours

one night
hark! dragons and doom!
i swear, i'll no longer laugh at you!
i'll repent, pay dues (you don't believe me)
i'd rather you not yell...

edward, get off me you can't touch me like that i'll tell father!
and where will you be then?

i bet you, dear friend, have never poked an eyeball out before heh heh heh
