ELIAS VON SON

WITH / OUT YOU

honeycomb home to the glittering drone, we are one in the billions of furiously grown assembled in piles or dining alone meetings of madness and the natural wonders:

buzzing ink in clouds above her tidal waves of typewriters headlines golden glaze from pollen stems devotion like pulling storms from oceans the ever changing always

without you,
nothing left but business in my bones lines drawn where birth and death paint brushed elbows killer bees in corporate common clothes burial plots of blueprints less followed with you,

nothing left
