THERE'S LIGHT IN THE DARKNESS

poetry by

ROBERT POPIELARZ

Empty inside, everything will subside
Deep down within, it is darkness and emotion only to hide
Sitting and wallowing in pity and misery
Never having a chance, from day one, throughout history
A failure and a fraud
Self-hatred like others have never thought
Striving to be something that will not be forgot
All the efforts go for naught
For who are you anyway, just another?
Lost soul in this life, who has much strife
Words of others may have scarred you so
And now they just ignore, and leave you low
The person hiding, deep down within
So that others can never truly see that which is
