Today I met God.
He asked me,
"How are you?"
I wondered why he needed to ask
Before a moment passed, I knew
He wanted to be my equal
"I'm alright."
We began to walk.
To where, I'm not certain
Onwards I went,
Spilling my heart and soul
To the One who always knew
I wished I had known Him longer,
Had Him to comfort my past.
As we talked,
And walked,
He smiled.
At one point our movement ceased
At a mountain top, He began to weep
"This world is polluted
By fear,
Anger,
Hate,
And by faithlessness.
Son, brother, friend of mine -
Help others see me
So that I may cure their blindness."
"Amazing," I thought.
"Even as He weeps, He smiles."
Can it be?
That if we are willing,
We can share God's emotions?
We were created in His image
Internally as well.
We can cry for what He cries for,
And can always smile as He does
He's there to comfort me,
To fill me with happiness.
I will help others come to know Him,
So He may be their friend.
Today I met God,
And made a friend.
