"TWO"

The smooth skinned waves grasped themselves.
In the way of drowning men,
They breathed deep, drinking...
Until their translucent insides filled
To be spat forth in a breath and howl of wind.

The bubbles of egg-white foam clamored up and clawed the cracked piers of concrete,
That dripped with sandy gritted seaweed.

The cold green weed clung to a skeleton,
of rusting icy steel,
the wound lay exposed,
It screamed at the drowning sea,
that salted the concrete scam, Wincing in pain, yet anaesthetized,
by the frozen fistred water,
Its throat polished in the slaked thirst of marble skeined mosaics.
