for my wife ...

Tom Jewell

*** for my wife...

I married a saint....

A saint....

Is someone of whom one says,
"I want to be like them."

Like a role model yet better....

Someone who interferes with your life
and your thinking
but in the best way possible.

Who calls you out of yourself to be more....
...to be holy.

Someone whose intercession on your behalf allows God to overlook your faults
and bring you to places never possible on your own.

A saint isn't perfect...but they're close.

And it's that "closeness" you seek...
like a moth drawn to a flame
you want the saint to be ever-near.

Drawn to them with a fascination
and a love that lasts a lifetime.

A saint never departs from you
but rather stays the course
no matter how rough or tough the going gets.
Till death do us part and then some...

That was enough for me....
So I married my saint...

And she gave me an angel.
