Sure white socks are cocky bastards with sweaty heels elicking stuttering rape of puffy cheeks and oily-white complacency

Sure that writhing sneer proclaims a smile in contempt swallowing inverted eyeballs stinging with tears of nagging frustration

Sure some prickling shredded wheat squeals god is dead with a bouncing belch from the top step that smothers Him

Sure grown men cry because their own pedigree learn to kill and write home letters nagging with the unasked will I die

Sure soap dispensers in perfumed johns are dried by J.D. Salinger's muffled comment on the unkempt kept walls

Sure pin stripes are in and tics are thin so pencil in that each for living just chases his own tail no pun intended

Sure the ivory halls are not ivory nor are there towers to acclaim the quest for truth starving on justwarm benches

Sure I'm the one who stamped out oink in the snow beginning with K so you would grin until the O preplexed your sin

Sure

what the hell
